

WESTERN ART ASSOCIATES - SALOON #1

Wednesday, November 15, 2017

5:30 p.m. – Refreshments in the Orientation Room at the Phoenix Art Museum

6:30 p.m. – Betsy Fahlman “Gallery Talk” on “Philip C. Curtis: The New Deal and American Regionalism”

The first Western Art Associates “Saloon” this year will take place at the Phoenix Art Museum on November 15, 2017. At 5:30 p.m., we will enjoy refreshments in the Orientation Room at the Museum, and at 6:30 p.m., Betsy Fahlman, the Adjunct Curator of American Art, will provide a “gallery talk” in the Orme Lewis Gallery on the exhibition “Philip C. Curtis: The New Deal and American Regionalism”.

The cost of this event for WAA members is $35, for other Museum members $40, and for non-Museum members $50. For reservations, please visit: www.phxart.org and select “tickets”. If you would like to reserve by check, please mail your check by November 8th, payable to “Phoenix Art Museum”, to Visitor Services, Phoenix Art Museum, 1625 N. Central Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85004. Please indicate “WAA Saloon” in the memo.

If you have questions about this event,
please contact Rebecca Comstock,
racomstock@cox.net or at 480-366-4911.

